

Mini-assignment

The first mini-assignment will be due on Oct. 9th. Follow the news coverage of Congress and identify one relevant research question that the coverage implicitly or explicitly raises. Write up a small summary of the research question and why it is important. One paragraph should be enough. You may work with one other student on this assignment.